POLICIES
Attendance policy	The student must attend 100% of practical classes. In case of skipping classes, the student must work missed class according to the schedule of reworks, approved by the department in the presence of the relevant order of the dean's office.

Assessment policy	When mastering the materials of the student's discipline, a maximum of 5 points is assigned for each practical lesson (the grade is set in the traditional 4-point grading system). At the end of the discipline is calculated arithmetic mean of student performance. The maximum number of points that a student can receive in practical classes during the academic year - 120. The number of student points is calculated by the formula 120 multiplied by the arithmetic mean and divided by 5. The student is admitted to the test subject to the requirements of the curriculum and if the current educational activity he scored at least 72 points. The test is held at the last lesson according to the schedule. The student takes a test control (100 situational tasks from Step-2 (20 points), answers 2 theoretical questions on various topics, covering all sections of the discipline (each question is evaluated in 15 points) and solves 1 situational task. discipline is defined as the sum of points for the current educational activity (not less than 72), points for individual independent work of the student (not more than 12) and points for differentiated credit (not less than 48). , when the current success of the student in the discipline is below the minimum, but if on the test he received a positive grade, the grade in the discipline is defined as 72 points for current activities and points for credit. In case of disagreement with the assessment, the student has the right to submit an explanation of the received grade. written appeal to the head of the department, indicating the specific reasons for disagreement with the assessment. The head of the department together with the examiner within 3 days considers the appeal and orally informs the student about the results of the review. If necessary, other specialists may be involved in the consideration of the appeal.
Deadlines and course retake policy	In case of unsatisfactory result, the student has the right to retake a practice-oriented differentiated test twice to the teacher who conducted the lesson. Students who do not appear for the differentiated test without a good reason are considered to have received an unsatisfactory grade. The student's refusal to perform the examination task is certified as an unsatisfactory answer. The student has the right to receive an explanation of the grade obtained.
Assessment appeals policy	The results of the module and semester assessment are subject to appeal. A student must lodge an appeal to the director/dean on the day of certification or after announcing the results, but no later than the next working day. The appeal commission is established by the director/dean's order. The appeal commission's decision may change the grade in case of violations revealed during the attestation.

Academic integrity policy	Participants must complete all tasks according to the course requirements independently. Participants are not allowed to cheat during the written module or summative test. The assignments should not contain plagiarism, facts of fabrication, falsification, cheating. Manifestations of other types of academic dishonesty determined by the Academic Integrity policy are also unacceptable. If a teacher reveals violations of academic integrity by students during the course, the former have the right to take one of the following actions: - to reduce points by up to 40% for practical assignments; - to give recommendations for improving and resubmitting mandatory homework assignments with the reduction of points by up to 25%; - to not accept mandatory homework assignments without the right to resubmit; - set a date for retaking the written module or the summative test with a reduction of points by up to 15%; - to not allow to retake the written module or the summative test.
