POLICIES
Attendance policy	The student must attend 100% of practical and 60% of lectures. In case of skipping classes, the student must work missed class in accordance with the schedule of exercises, approved by the department in the presence of the relevant order of the dean's office.

Assessment policy	When assessing knowledge, the student for each hour of practical training is assigned a maximum of 5 points (the grade is set in the traditional 4-point grading system). The maximum number of points that a student can receive in practical classes during the academic year - 100. The number of student points is calculated by the formula: the arithmetic mean of the success of current grades multiplied by 20. For writing and defending a medical history are assigned the following points: "5" - 5 points, "4" - 4 points, "3" - 3 points, "2" - 0 points. In general, for the history of the disease and for diagnostic testing, the student can get a maximum of 10 points, with the required minimum of 6 points. The maximum number of points for the current educational activities of the student - 120. The minimum (admission to credit) - 72 points (60 points for current performance and 6 points for medical history and testing). Practically - oriented differentiated test is conducted according to the schedule at the end of the semester. The score for the test is set in the traditional 4-point grading system, while, in general, the score "5" corresponds to 80 points, "4" - 64 points, "3" - 48 points, "2" - 0 points, of which - the score for practical and theoretical training is 40% of the total amount of control points and is responsible - "5" - 32 points, "4" - 25.6 points, "3" - 19.2 points "2" - 0 points. The score for testing is 20%, which corresponds to - "5" - 16 points, "4" - 12.8 points, "3" - 9.6 points "2" - 0 points. PMK is credited to a student if he has scored at least 48 points out of 80. The overall grade for the discipline consists of the sum of points scored for the current performance and the PMK. Incentive points are added to the assessment of the discipline - for an individual research project (defense of student research 12 points, speech at the conference 5, poster presentation - 4, abstracts reports 3 points), for the preparation of multimedia presentations 5
Deadlines and course retake policy	In case the applicant received an unsatisfactory grade for the practice-oriented differentiated test, he must reschedule it for 21 weeks in the form of testing. The maximum score that can be obtained by the applicant for the final modular control (FMC) - "3". The grade from the discipline that the applicant receives after the re-completion of the FMC is defined as the sum of points for current performance and 48 points for the FMC. If the applicant has not rescheduled the FMC - the second reschedule is conducted in the form of testing in the presence of the commission. The maximum score he can get for FMK - "3". After the second re-addition of FMK, all current points received by the student in the discipline are canceled. The total grade for the discipline that a student can receive after the 3rd re-examination of the FMC can not be more than "3", which corresponds to 120 points. The applicant must reschedule the FMC before the beginning of the next semester.
Assessment appeals policy	The results of the module and semester assessment are subject to appeal. A student must lodge an appeal to the director/dean on the day of certification or after announcing the results, but no later than the next working day. The appeal commission is established by the director/dean's order. The appeal commission's decision may change the grade in case of violations revealed during the attestation.

Academic integrity policy	Participants must complete all tasks according to the course requirements independently. Participants are not allowed to cheat during the written module or summative test. The assignments should not contain plagiarism, facts of fabrication, falsification, cheating. Manifestations of other types of academic dishonesty determined by the Academic Integrity policy are also unacceptable. If a teacher reveals violations of academic integrity by students during the course, the former have the right to take one of the following actions: - to reduce points by up to 40% for practical assignments; - to give recommendations for improving and resubmitting mandatory homework assignments with the reduction of points by up to 25%; - to not accept mandatory homework assignments without the right to resubmit; - set a date for retaking the written module or the summative test with a reduction of points by up to 15%; - to not allow to retake the written module or the summative test.
